Covid19 precautions

We will continue to offer church services unless the government advises us otherwise, at which point we hope to direct you to services offered online. However, those who feel themselves particularly vulnerable for whatever reason should make their own decisions on whether to attend, and all who feel ill are requested not to come to church while showing symptoms.

In church, handshaking is strongly discouraged. Please do not be offended if the person leading worship does not shake your hand!

You may wish to think carefully about visiting those folk who may be particularly vulnerable - if you can't visit then a card or phone call will still be welcome.

As things develop or change please heed any advice from the Government and look on our website and Facebook page.
